See Instruction III, page 1, for a list of obligations the interest on which is exampt.

Taxes.—Report here taxes on your dwellings and household property, not including those assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property. Do not include Federal income taxes, or extate or inheritance taxes.

Losses.—Report here losses of property not connected with your trude, business, or profession, sustained during the year from fire, storm, shipwireck, or other casualty, or from theft, which were not compensated for by insurance or otherwise. Explain such losses in table at foot of page 2 of return.

Contributions.—Report here only contributions made within the year to corporations organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, or educations organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, and contributions to the special fund for vocational rehabilitation. The total amount of contributions to be entered here must not exceed 15 per cent of the net income computed without the benefit of this deduction. Therefore, if Item 4, Schedule 1, exceeds the sum of your total net income (fien 24) and Item 4, then Item 4 must be reduced to 15 per cent of such sum and your total net income must be recalculated accordingly.

Enter under "Explanation of deductions," at the foot of page 2 of the return, the name and address of each corporation to which you made contributions claimed as deductions, and the smount paid to each.

Other deductions.—Bad dobts arising out of personal loaus may be reported here.

Ricck dividends which were paid out of profits or surplus accumulated by the distributing corporation prior to the year for which this return is made but not prior to March 1, 1913, should not be included in Herm K(s), but should be reported as Hem 22, a, b, and c, Hem 14b, col. 4, and Hams 14c and 14d on page 1 of the return.

Profits of personal service corporations should be included in C (except such part thereof as consisted of dividends of ordinary corporations and interest on obligations of the United States issued since September 1, 1917).

1. In order to accretain the amount to be entered under K(b), refer first to Table 13 on page 1 of the return.
2. If any amount entered in column 6 of that table exceeds the maximum exemption for the same class of obligations (stated in column 7), then you must attach to the return a schedule showing in reparate columns the following information for that class of obligations:

that class of obligations:

(a) Periods during which your boldings of that class of obligations remained unchanged (including your share of the boldings of partnerships, personal service corporations, estates, and trusts, and also any holdings the interest on which you reported as income for 1917, and on which you claimed exemption in your 1917 return).

(b) Amount of obligations held by you individually during each such period.

(c) Your share of the holdings of each partnership, personal service corporation, estate, and trust during each such period.

K (b). INTEREST ON OBLIGATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES ISSUED SINCE SEPTEMBER 1, 1917.

ED STATES ISSUED SINCE SEPTEMBER 1, 1917.

(d) Totals of smounts in columns b and c.

(e) Amount by which each amount entered in column d exceeds the maximum exemption for that close of obligations.

(f) Interest derived from each amount of principal stated in column e.

3. If any part of the interest reported in Table 13 was received through a partnership having a feesal year failing partly in the calendar year 1917, the taxable interest received through such partnership should be calculated in a separate column g of the acceptance of the state in column, for each period specified in column s, either (1) the smount entered in column for (2) the interest on your share of the partnership's holdings (shown in column), whichever is the smaller.

4. Enter as I term K (b), on page 2 of the return, the total of column g for all classes of obligations, less as many twelfths of the total of column g (if any) as the number of months of the partnership's fiscal year that fell in 1917. Enter the amount deducted as I term 14b (column c) on page 1 of the return.

Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt,

Hyde Tark. New York.

Sir:

In accordance with the provisions of Section 250(d) of the Revenue Act of 1921, you are granted thirty days within which to file an appeal and show cause or reason why this tax or deficiency should not be paid. No particular form of appeal is required, but if filed it must set forth specifically the exceptions upon which it is taken, shall be under eath, contain a statement that it is not for the purpose of dalay, and the facts and evidence upon which you rely must be fully stated. The appeal, if filed, must be addressed to the Commissionar of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., for the specific attention of IT:PA:FR, RKJ-70 and will be referred to the Income Tax Unit before transmittal to the agency designated for the hearing of such appeals.

You may, if you desire, request a conference before the Income Tax Unit in connection with the appeal, to be held within the period prior to the expiration of five days after the time prescribed for the filing of the appeal. If the Income Tax Unit is unable to concede the points raised in your appeal, it will be transmitted, together with the recommendation of the Income Tax Unit, to such agency as the Commissioner may designate for final consideration.

Where a taxpayer has been given an opportunity to appeal and has not done so, as set forth above, and an assessment has been made, or where a taxpayer has appealed and an assessment in accordance with the final decision on such appeal has been made, no claim in abatement of the assessment will be entertained.

This assessment is in addition to all other outstanding and unpaid assessments appearing upon the Collector's lists.

Payment should not be made until a bill is received from the Collector of Internal Revenue for your district, and remittance should then be made to him.

Respectfully,

E. W. CHATTERTON,

Deputy Commissioner.

Chief of Section.

The audit has been approved as submitted with the following exceptions:

For 1919 and 1920 adjustments have been made whereby the additional tax liability for those years has been cancelled.

Relative to the protest of the disallowance of a contribution in the amount of $25.00 to the Knights of Columbus War Fund, you are advised that it is held by this office that contributions to the Knights of Columbus for any purpose whatsoever do not come within the purview of Section 214 (a) (11) of the Revenue act of 1918, as explained by Article 251. Regulations 45.

In making the above adjustments, full consideration has been given to the statements contained in a letter of protest submitted by Lr. Thomas II. Lynch, Foughkeepsie, New York.

Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt, 49 East 65th Street, New York City, N. Y.

Dear Franklin:

Enclose you herewith copy of a letter forwarded to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue today relative to the field and office audit of your income tax returns for the years 1918-19-20.

The additional tax shown by the audit of returns of Mrs. Roosevelt for years 1918-19-20 of $6.02 for the year 1918, $8.77 for the year 1919 and no tax for 1920, showing a total additional tax of $14.79 appears 0. K.

With kindest regards and best wishes.

In Re: Mon. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Hyde Park, N. Y. Forms 1040, Years 1918-19-20 Total additional tax $171.98

Ref. Letter April 21, 1923, IT:PA:FR-RKJ-701

Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Washington, D. C.

Dear Bir:

Reference is made to the above letter, also statement showing $171.98 additional tax due as a result of a field and office audit of the returns of Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Myde Park, H. Y., for the years 1918 to 1920 inclusive, received by him and referred to this office for reply.

You are advised that exceptions are taken on the reduction of depreciation from $1462.25 to $991.50 or an amount of $470.75 disallowed on the audit of the return for the year 1920. The depreciation taken on original return of 14% on brick dwelling appears reasonable based on the cost and the life of the property. Also the 2% on frame rentable farm buildings, notwith-standing in former years the rates of 1% and 12% were taken on the above buildings, which were not enough and in our judgment should have been increased.

Exception is also taken to the disallowance on the return for 1918 of $25. contribution to the Knights of Columbus war fund, in view of the fact that it is our understanding that all contributions to this fund were kept separate and apart from other money and used only for that purpose.

Will respectfully ask that a review of returns for the above years be made and consideration of exceptions taken before listing this tax for assessment.

Respectfully,
